

4. Elementary School Growth Plan - Math: September 2020 – June 2022

School	West Sechelt Elementary
Background	Total Enrollment: 247 (Primary: 117; Intermediate: 130)
Data Summary	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • School and classroom data • Provincial Assessments • Aboriginal Student Success • Students with special needs
Data Analysis	Begin process of data assessment K-7
Targets	December 2020	March 2021	June 2021
	Teachers continue with CAMP sessions	Teachers continue with CAMP sessions
Progress on Target	Exploration of another way to meet everyone's needs includes pushing-in support
Strategy/ Action	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Teachers participate in CAMP (Primary) and CAMP (Intermediate) to investigate curriculum and strategies. • Doug Styles (IST) and Ron Fremont (IST) supporting teachers in the adaptation and in-class support of Shelley Moore's guidelines.
Engaging Parents	Share school goals at the October PAC meeting
Engaging Indigenous Educ Team	Collaborate with Bonnie Finotti (Indigenous Suppt. T.) about the performance of the Indigenous students. Review the data in the Indigenous student binder. Promote ways to include Indigenous ways of knowing as they relate to mathematics.
Connections to District Plans	1e) Our students will be numerate. They will have the skills and tenacity to interpret and apply mathematical understandings in flexible, functional and creative ways.
Budget	Professional Development

	Resources	SD46 ENGAGE (Ex. Shelley Moore)
Principal	Jeff Marshall
Team Members	Primary team: Patty Dressler, Michelle Smart, Eryn Dowler, Amy Brooks, Melissa Paolozza, Jen Bisset, Katherine Andres, and Jyl Stinson. Intermediate team: Katherine Andres, Jyl Stinson, Lisa Allen, Chris Allen, Raun Desharnais, Julie Rempel, and Ray Clayton. Support team: Michelle Smart (reading), Jen Goerzen (librarian/reading), Doug Styles (inclusion support), Ron Fremont (inclusion support), Bonnie Finotti (Indigenous educ), Karen Broom (English Language Learning), Johanna Marion (fine arts/technology), Steve Karagianis (music), Douglas Hagerman (music), and Kate Cree (counsellor).	